Singapore

What it produces, exports, imports and uses, among the commodities tracked here

Top-ten exporter of

Commodity	World rank	Share of world exports	Export value
Niobium	4	2.2%	$75.8 million
Cloves	5	2.5%	$16.3 million
Cardamom	8	1.6%	$19.6 million
Iridium	8	1.4%	$31.6 million

Of $12.4 billion of tracked-commodity exports, 87% is gold, then zinc (2.7%).

Top-ten importer of: cashews (#4), lead (#4), niobium (#5), cloves (#6), manganese (#6), chromium (#7), cocoa (#7), gold (#8).

Single-supplier import markets

Singapore buys half or more of its imports from one country in 6 of 13 import markets of $250 million or more: nickel from China (51%); lead from India (54%); aluminum from Mozambique (78%); milk from New Zealand (62%); chicken from Brazil (69%).

Sources: FAOSTAT, USGS Mineral Commodity Summaries, Energy Institute Statistical Review (production); CEPII BACI (trade); FAOSTAT Food Balances (use). Ranks count only the commodities on this site. Cite as: Commodity Origins, "Singapore", https://commodityorigins.com/countries/SGP/ (CC BY 4.0). Full page, sources and downloads: https://commodityorigins.com/countries/SGP/. Text is written with AI assistance and checked against the cited data; figures are computed from the sources (https://commodityorigins.com/about/#how-ai-is-used).