Togo

What it produces, exports, imports and uses, among the commodities tracked here

Top-ten producer of

Commodity	World rank	Share of world	Year
Yams	5	1.1%	2024

Top-ten exporter of

Commodity	World rank	Share of world exports	Export value
Cashews	5	6.3%	$221.9 million
Phosphate rock	5	6.7%	$354.3 million

Of $1.2 billion of tracked-commodity exports, 30% is phosphate rock, then soybeans (21%).

Top-ten importer of: cashews (#5).

Single-supplier import markets

Togo buys half or more of its imports from one country in 3 of 3 import markets of $250 million or more: rice from India (72%); crude oil from Nigeria (85%); palm oil from Malaysia (63%).

Sources: FAOSTAT, USGS Mineral Commodity Summaries, Energy Institute Statistical Review (production); CEPII BACI (trade); FAOSTAT Food Balances (use). Ranks count only the commodities on this site. Cite as: Commodity Origins, "Togo", https://commodityorigins.com/countries/TGO/ (CC BY 4.0). Full page, sources and downloads: https://commodityorigins.com/countries/TGO/. Text is written with AI assistance and checked against the cited data; figures are computed from the sources (https://commodityorigins.com/about/#how-ai-is-used).